POWER-UP
VISUAL DIRECTION

LET'S DISCUSS
YOUR VISUAL DIRECTION.

ABOUT POWER-UP.

Power-Up™ is not just a portable charger, it is:

- A continuity brand for modern, momentum-driven lives
- Starting with compact, on-demand energy as the hero product
- Designed for individuals who rely on constant access, movement, and control
- With built-in scalability into services, infrastructure, and everyday carry essentials

The brand must work psychologically first, functionally second.
Power is our foundation. Continuity is our language.

VISUAL DIRECTION.

BASED ON THE BRIEF

- Not too colourful
- Warm colours, but not too bright
- One or two colours to represent the brand
- Modern, design and aesthetics-driven
- Gender-neutral, not too masculine but not feminine
- Bold typography

THIS INSURES

- Timelessness
- Easy recognition
- Emotional trust built

This visual direction aims to keep things simple, straight-to-the-point, allowing POWER-UP to avoid over-explanation for an audience that doesn't have time to listen.

01. MOOD- BOARD

THE INSPO.

The branding direction is influenced by sports and lifestyle brands, specifically a retro 80s look and feel, including Kodak and Nike as inspiration.

The brand highlights lifestyle and utilises gradients and blurs to visualise speed and efficiency, as well as bold text to represent confidence.

GRADIENTS.

These gradients were created as part of the branding colours to visualise speed, calm and direct action.

The colours are warm to reflect the brand tone of voice, with added grain effect to stay consistent with the retro look and feel.
